CHEYENNE, Wyo.— The Cheyenne Police Department will kick off this year's Neighborhood Night Out by hosting a block captains planning meeting.

Previous block captains, as well as potential new captains, are encouraged to attend this meeting at the Kiwanis Community House Tuesday, June 2 at 6 p.m.

The sixth annual "Cheyenne Neighborhood Night Out" community event is right around the corner, as Tuesday July 14 is rapidly approaching!

This fun planning meeting will be informational and include open discussion, planning, and opportunity to share ideas for another great year in our Cheyenne community. Awards for last year's block parties will also be given out.

Anyone interested in hosting a block party is encouraged to participate as Cheyenne Neighborhood Night Out 2015 gets kicked off for another awesome year!
