Police Nab Burglary Suspect

CHEYENNE, Wyo.— The Cheyenne Police Department arrested one man on November 29 who allegedly committed multiple business and residential burglaries around the city.

David Labriola, 32, of Cheyenne, was arrested and booked into the Laramie County Detention Facility on burglary and aggravated burglary charges.

During the investigation Cheyenne Police Detectives conducted multiple search warrants and recovered several stolen items.

In addition to several other burglaries, Labriola allegedly committed the recent burglaries of Marv's Other Place, AmeriTech, and Big O Tires.

Burglary is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 10 years and aggravated burglary is a felony punishable by imprisonment up to 25 years.

These cases remain under investigation by the Cheyenne Police Department.
