Ride-Along Request

Prior to participating in the Cheyenne Police Ride-Along program, all participants must complete and sign the Cheyenne Police Department Release of Liability Form (reverse). Civilian participants are limited to one ride-along shift per calendar year, unless granted an exception by the Bureau Commander.

Ride Along Program Rules:

Riders are required to remain with the police vehicle, or other location as directed by an officer, when officers are making traffic stops or answering calls for service

Riders will obey instructions given by the officer they are riding with, and/or other police officers on scene.

Riders will not chase, stop, detain or question anyone regarding a police incident

Riders will not represent themselves as a police officer or wear or display any badge, shield, patch or any other item that would reasonably present the rider as a police officer nor will a rider wear any clothing that is considered offensive, inappropriate, disrespectful or that is potentially gang related

In potentially dangerous situations, an officer has the discretion to temporarily leave their rider at a safe location and arrange for alternate transportation.

No weapons of any kind are allowed by the rider during the ride-along.

Riders participating in the ride-along program are expected to maintain a proper level of hygiene

Ride-alongs are riding with the sanction of the Cheyenne Police Department and all information received while performing official duties is strictly confidential, and should not be discussed outside of the Cheyenne Police Department.

Riders should be advised that law enforcement audio and video recording devices may be active during the ride-along

All photography/audio/video recording is prohibited during the ride-along without consent from the Chief of Police.

Cell phone usage, to include texting and social media use, is prohibited during the ride-along

Violations of any of these rules may be grounds to terminate the ride-along and/or future ride-alongs.

Please prioritize three potential Ride-Along Dates and Times:
